Psalm 127:3-5

Behold, children are a heritage from the Lord, The fruit of the womb is a reward. Like arrows in the hand of a warrior, so are the children of one's youth. Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them. They shall not be ashamed, but shall speak with their enemies in the gate.

Too often children are seen as liabilities rather than assets. But the Bible calls children "a heritage from the Lord", a reward. We can learn valuable lessons from their inquisitive minds and trusting spirits.

We @ PSL admonishes: Those who view children as a distraction or nuisance should instead see them as an opportunity to shape the future. We dare not treat children as an inconvenience when God values them so highly. He sees you the same way as a child. "He hasn't changed!"

A New Year message from the CEO

First of all, let me say Happy New Year to all of you. If you are reading this message, it means that you made it through 2016 and are blessed to see a new one. In 2017 let's not take those small, little, sometime meaningless three words, "Happy New Year", for granted. I know it has been a rough 2016 for all of us. So much has happened in 2016 until it's hard to find a beginning and an end. We all have probably lost someone in 2016 or know someone who has. We've lost famous celebrities as well as every day people from all walks of life. We have a new president, whether you like it or not. We even have new political leaders all across the nation. Our country has been hit hard with terrorism and racism on all types of levels. However, in spite of all the recent events that brought us disappointments it's important that we stay focused and remain prayerful for ourselves, our families and our political leaders, etc. No matter the changes that have taken place in the world there is one thing that remains the same and that is that Parishes Supportive Living, Inc. is a Christian based agency that focuses on taking the biblical approach to doing business by providing care to our elderly and disabled neighbors as we are commissioned to do as stewards of God. We are perfect by no means, but are constantly striving to be of good assistance when providing the services we offer. In 2017 I want to encourage you all to aspire and put forth great effort to being the best you can be. While I personally do not believe in New Year Resolutions I do believe in improving oneself throughout the year. Life is a process, and that process takes as long as you allow it. Take the time to improve your relationship with God, choose to eat healthier foods, exercise and read a book this year. Do something you don't normally do for the betterment of yourself. Try being more active in your church or join a church; be found doing something nice for someone more often and tell someone you love them daily. However you decide to spend your 2017 make it a blessed one!

We should never forget the real reason for the season which is Jesus Christ. He was born for one specific reason and that was to draw man back in good fellowship with God. He came to save us from ourselves and from sin so that we could have the chance to live with God in Heaven when he comes back for his people. We should all be grateful for his birth, life, death and resurrection. Be sure to share this knowledge with your loved ones this year. Christmas is much more than a tree, lights, gifts and food. It's about love, compassion and mercy. So show someone love, compassion and have mercy because this is the only way to prove that you are in the Father and the Father lives in you. God Bless!!!!
