National Women's History Month Festival I Filiae Mundi – High School Girls Sing-In
Saturday, March 3, 2018

Dear Colleagues,

It is with great pleasure that we announce the inaugural National Women's History Month Festival I – Filiae Mundi – High School Girls Sing-In on Saturday, March 3, 2018. We will gather with you to celebrate the exciting, dynamic and one-of-kind experience of high school girls making music together. Coming together from every corner of the tri-state area, student organizations will perform for each other, eat together and spend the afternoon rehearsing and performing together. Registration is open to school and church ensembles, as well as individual performers. Filiae Mundi is specifically for High School Girl Choirs – large or small. Space is limited to 12 Ensembles and 200 singers so you'll want to register right away!

It is even more thrilling to announce our guest conductors for Filiae Mundi: Robyn Lana, Artistic Director of the Cincinnati Children's Choir, Lisa Peters, Assistant Conductor – Advanced Division of the Cincinnati Boy Choir, former Choral Director at Mt. St. Joseph University and Walnut Hills High School and Dr. Catherine Roma, Artistic Director Emerita of MUSE, Cincinnati's Women's Choir, Professor Emerita, Wilmington College.

As part of the Filiae Mundi – High School Girls Sing-In – all students will participate in the Mass Choir Rehearsal and Performance. Each conductor will choose and conduct a piece and there will be 3 conductors and 3 pieces and one additional piece. We will let you know the 4 pieces by January 1, 2018. Music will be provided at the event.
