The Log Cabin offers multiple options for private dining and special events.

Our restaurant is located in a historic log cabin built in 1924 by Joe Webb (1881-1950). A private residence until the late 1980's, the cabin has been transformed into one of Western North Carolina's most unique dining and event venues. Located at the end of Main Street in Highlands, the Log Cabin is just minutes from a dozen of the area's finest hotels & B&Bs.
