Meet Our Trainer: Coach Jim Corrora

Coach Jim Corrora has had a remarkable 50-year basketball coaching career, both at the collegiate and high school level, while conducting hundreds of basketball shooting/ball-handling/big man/guard camps and clinics all over the world, in India (via Jr. NBA); Moscow, Russia; Helsinki, Finland; and Warsaw, Poland. His expertise and experience has allowed him to coach/teach thousands of youth and young adults the proper shooting techniques coupled with great ball-handling drills to enhance their “game”.

Our Objective:

To receive solid instruction and to improve basic skills needed for basketball through training in a fun, uplifting, Christian environment. Monday and Thursday will consist of shooting skills, and learning proper shooting techniques. Tuesday and Friday will be focused on individual skills, such as: the art of passing, becoming a defensive stopper, improving players drive to the bucket, etc.

Crusader Basketball Camp

July 9, 10, 12 & 13

Ages: 7-18

4:30pm – 7:00 pm

What to Bring:

Participants

- Water Bottle or Sports Drink (1 liter is preferred)
- Insurance card (first night only – for registration purposes)

Coaches

- Notepad
- Pen
- Medical Forms for participants
- Copies of Registration papers

There will be no seating available during camp, because of this, anyone other than participants and coaches will not be permitted in the gymnasium. Parents may drop-off students at the camp 15 minutes before camp to begin warming up and may pick up students at the camp ending time.

Due to religious convictions, if a female camper must wear a skirt, we ask that they wear shorts or spandex underneath their skirts. By doing this, all girls will remain modest while doing drills.

*Coaches are required to have all students fill out a medical history form. Coaches are responsible for keeping these forms throughout the week in case of an emergency situation during camp. One head coach per team is free during camp; any additional coaches or assistant coaches must pay the participant fee.
