

1967 Dr. McIlmurry Dies Thursday

Dr. Morgan F. McIlmurray, 6, an Elkton resident for more than forty years died Thursday at Schuerer hospital, Pigeon, after a lingering illness.

Dr. McIlmurry was born September 23, 1890 in Arkona, Ontario.

Dr. McIlmurry became a veterinarian in 1918 and has practiced in Huron county since 1923. He was a World War I veteran. A thirty second degree mason, Dr. McIlmurry was a member of the Knight Templar Commandery in Bad Axe.

Survivors are two sisters, Mrs. John Ballagh, Fillion; Mrs. Herbert Kreh, Caseville. Dr. McIlmurry's wife preceded him in death some years ago.

There will be private funeral services at Dr. McIlmurry's home, Saturday at 2 p.m. Rev. Max Weeks, Memphis, will officiate assisted by Rev. Mae Shupe.

Burial will be in Colfax cemetery.