

Student ^{to} → CEO

Young Entrepreneurs Academy of Baton Rouge (YEA BR) is cultivating tomorrow's business leaders...today.

As seen on: SHARK TANK
seventeen

As seen on: HATCHED

YEA Graduate
National College
Scholarship Winner

YEA Graduate
Infiniti Salon
Owner

YEA BR helps students turn their talents and skills into businesses.

Apply now!
yeabr.org

THIS COULD BE ME!!!

Young Entrepreneurs Academy of Baton Rouge transforms high school students into confident entrepreneurs. In partnership with the LSU E. J. Ourso College of Business, students learn to make connections between their interests and new business ventures. Over the academic year, students create business plans, pitch to an investor panel, and seek funding to launch their own companies.

Students build skills that will change their lives. No business experience is required, only a drive to succeed!

Highlights:

- ✓ Fun, projects-based after-school program
- ✓ Learn business fundamentals through lectures, projects, and field trips to area businesses
- ✓ Taught by business school instructors and area entrepreneurs
- ✓ Classes held Wednesdays 5-8 PM from September to April except during breaks; dinner is provided
- ✓ Hosted at the LSU E. J. Ourso College of Business
- ✓ Need-based scholarships available to offset tuition
- ✓ Applications open to students entering grades 8-12, deadline is August 31

National YEA students featured by:

FORTUNE

Inc.

Entrepreneur

teenVOGUE

CNN

THE HUFFINGTON
POST

The
New York Times

In partnership with:

Baton Rouge Area Chamber

LSU

Stephenson Department of Entrepreneurship & Information Systems
Stephenson Entrepreneurship Institute
Innovation Park

For more information and to apply:
visit: yeabr.org

YOUNG ENTREPRENEURS Academy

STUDENTS WHO MEAN BUSINESS

225.325.3558
info@yeabr.org
www.yeabr.org