

Susan Wright

I have been an art appreciator and collector all my life. Always had a good eye for art but had never tried my hand at making art until January of 2018 when I moved to New Mexico, retired and decided to start taking all kinds of art classes and am discovering the artist within me. Truly enjoying the process.

