

North Dakota Red Angus Association

Conference call Nov. 21 at 8 PM CST

Present on call: Jodi Schriefer, Karissa Daws, Ron Clemetson, Sam Twedt, Doug Mcgee, Scott Kueffler, Bryan and Emmy Huber

President Jodi Schriefer called meeting to order.

Reading of the minutes and financials were suspended.

Old Business:

President Schriefer asked if the assigned calls were made to the new consignors asking them if they had any questions or concerns. Positive feedback was received from the consignors and they appreciated the call. Karissa Daws stated that should would be going to the North Star Classic in Valley City and setting up a table for the Red Angus Association. Cargo Red Angus is willing to allow the table to be set up next to their stall and there will be ND Red select catalogs and directories available.

New Business:

The board will meet Thursday evening at the Ramkota conference center at 8 PM CST. Ryan Boldt from the National office is attending the weekend and will be speaking at the banquet. Emmy Huber will line up the meeting room and speak to the hotel about getting a projector set for the banquet.

Jodi Schriefer talked about Tyler Clemetson and the unfortunate accident he recently had. Ron Clementson stated that monetary donations can go to the Northern Valley credit union in Grand forks to help cover medical expenses. Karissa Daws made a motion that fellow breeders can set up a silent auction at the annual meeting and banquet for Tyler Clemetson. Sam Twedt seconded the motion. Motion carried. Breeders wanting to donate to the silent action should let Karissa know so she can print off sheets for the event.

Doug McGee stated that he wishes to not run again for the director position. Karissa Daws's one-year term is also up and she stated she would seek reelection. Individuals wishing to be put on the ballot should contact a board member.

Karissa Daws made a motion to adjourn the meeting, seconded by Scott Kueffler.

Meeting adjourned

Respectfully submitted

Emmy Huber, Sec/Treas. NDRAA
