Old Business:

-Business cards were handed out.

-We will look at utilizing the Elk's for next season's banquet

-There will be a team out of One for the Road next season.

-Becky will remain on account until Dave can be added

-State team tryout was completed on 2/9. There were 16 players who tried out.

-Winter season banquet this Saturday. Trophies $613.49, may be approximately $700 more. $400 for draw and $400 for gift cards. Dave made a proposal of possibly buying a keg for the attendees. We will table the discussion for next season.

- Winter fling- made $763 after single fees. This includes 50/50, raffle and entry fees.

-Palm Beacher Scheduled for March 30.

- Wreaths across America will have a scheduled date after the Palm Beacher

-Heard nothing from the hideaway. Brian will attempt to contact again.

-Possible plaque nominees for next season- Dan Miller and Pam Bowden.

New Business

- Pam Bowden will be our FDA representative to attend meetings.

-Review of state team rules: fixing 501 to 401, under player responsibility and conduct- If a player makes the PBCDA then they cannot tryout for another league's state team. If the player does then he/she will be removed from the PBCDA team. Adding "proceeds of tournament go to team." Voting for captains- remove "must be in attendance to be considered for captain." Practices/meetings/fundraising- dividing funds – adding "50/50 fundraising, state team players must help". The long term raffle- "each player will receive the amount that is equivalent to half of the amount that they sold." "If players or captains miss any of the above they may make up for this by doing additional fundraising that includes 50/50, finding sponsors etc." PBCDA funding- "this money will be given to the captain prior to finals." "state team responsibility- adding bringing in sponsors." all rule changes were approved.

-Sunday afternoons- bimonthly, PBCDA will host youth events at the Elk's Club. age range-

8-12, 13-15, 16-18. format- teams. All of the information has come from the FDA youth league president.

-Mike is now part of the membership committee.

-Flyer was updated with Mike's contact info and the youth league information.

-Next season will start on March 11 and 13 with Captain's meetings. Monday will be at rack n balls, Wednesday will be blue boar.

-Question posed on facebook to change 801 game to a different game. The voting from people that played Wednesday night voted 60-40 to change it. Brian will add a questionnaire to each packet that the team has to collectively vote on. Either to change the 801 to- 601 or an extra doubles round.

-Dave requested an accordion folder so he is able to file all of the receipts appropriately.

Next meeting TBD @ Dave's House 7:30pm
