Heifers must be in place by 8 p.m. Friday. Market Animals must be in place by 9:00 a.m. on Saturday.

Cattle may begin arriving by 8 a.m. Friday.

No Straw Allowed. Wood Chips or Sawdust Only.

Due to limited space, no exhibitor will be allowed to reserve stalls.

Stalls are strictly on a first come, first-serve basis. A stall is not considered yours until your cattle are in it. Show is open to all junior exhibitors 21 years of age and under. Heifers show Saturday, March 7th at 8 a.m. and market animals will show Sunday, March 8th at 9 a.m. Steers and heifers show by breed. Market heifers will only be shown by weight. Missouri division placing's are taken from Open Division class results; however Missouri breed champions and overall champions will have individual championship-drive classes following the appropriate Open Division class.

Market Animals: Must have been born in 2019. To be eligible for a breed class, steers will need to meet the same percentage requirements as set forth by the breed association, and they must show a predominance of such breed characteristics. All others will show in the crossbred class. Market heifers will only be shown by weight. Steers will show by weight. No re-weights will take place.

Heifers: Must have been born between 9-1-18 and 7-1-19. All purebred heifers must have registration papers in hand at check in. Heifers will show by age. Heifers without registration papers will show as crossbred. Heifers can only be shown once in either the market or breeding division. Only one exhibitor may show heifers in only one breed division. All animals must be owned and shown by the exhibitor. Animals from outside Missouri must have health papers that apply with state regulations. No hemp, hair or hair-like materials or surgical alterations will be allowed. Any and all animals may be subject to veterinary examination. Portable generators are welcome and encouraged. Show management reserves the right to interpret the rules or make any decision regarding the show deemed necessary in the best interest of the event. All cattle will be released upon the completion of their respective show.
