

MCAG's February "Artist of the Month" is Debbie Hill

My main photographic focus is families and individuals, but I'm also available to shoot weddings, casuals, senior pictures, proms, reunions, products, and pets. With 23 years of photography experience there's sure to be a way we can work together to provide you with the best photography experience. I pride myself on a relaxed and customized service for the customer. I can even provide a variety of touch ups and enhancements to your photos with great attention to detail.

My motto is "Always do unto others as you would have them do unto you", and I run my business this way. If I am not happy with what I've created I would never expect you as a customer to be... I will never sell an item to a customer that I wouldn't want to purchase myself.

So please look around, and feel free to contact me with any questions you may have, or for a quote on your special photography need. Thanks!
