Each actor is expected to be at every rehearsal they are called to unless previously excused on this form or in advance through the director or stage manager. Haircuts will not be allowed, especially males, without permission from the director. If this is not a possibility for you please let the stage manager immediately. All cast and crew are expected to treat each other with the utmost respect and kindness. We will also provide an atmosphere where children of all ages and families are comfortable. No swearing or crude language will be tolerated. If you are cast in this show, you will be expected to abide by these policies. Repeated disregard of these policies can result in termination from the cast or crew. If you are willing to abide by these policies, please sign below.
