Ensemble / Class Descriptions

Wind Ensemble: This is the varsity music performing ensemble for Canyon High School, and is made up of students in grades 9-12. Acceptance into this group is by audition only. This group performs advanced music and performs at concerts, football games, pep rallies, parades, and competitions throughout the year. This group has additional rehearsal requirements outside of the class day and individual competition requirements as well. Students in this ensemble are highly encouraged to enroll in private lessons and keep a routine practice regimen. Students in the Wind Ensemble are automatically a member of the marching band and will be expected to participate in TMEA auditions and UIL Solo & Ensemble. Chair placement is by an audition and challenge system.

Symphonic Winds: This band is an advanced ensemble made up of students in grades 9-12 and is open to enrollment by audition. This group performs several times throughout the year at concerts, football games, pep rallies, parades, and competitions. This group is considered the "Non-Varsity" ensemble at UIL Concert Contest. Participation in individual competitions and enrollment in private lessons is strongly encouraged. Please see the class syllabus for specific requirements. Symphonic Winds members are also automatically a member of the marching band. Chair placement is by an audition and challenge system.

Symphonic Band: This band is an advanced band made up of students in grades 9-12 and is open to enrollment by audition. This group performs several times throughout the year at concerts, football games, pep rallies, parades, and competitions. This group is considered a "Sub-Non-Varsity" ensemble at UIL Concert Contest. Participation in individual competitions and enrollment in private lessons is encouraged. Symphonic Band members are also automatically a member of the marching band. Chair placement is by an audition and challenge system.

Freshmen Honor Band: This band is made up of advanced 9th grade students and is open to enrollment by audition. Members of this group are eligible for placement as Varsity marching band positions in addition to their concert band placement. This group performs several times throughout the year at concerts, football games, pep rallies, parades, and UIL competitions. This group is considered a “Sub-Non-Varsity” ensemble at UIL Concert Contest. Participation in individual student contests and enrollment in private lessons is strongly encouraged. Chair placement is by an audition and challenge system.

Concert Band: This band is made up of intermediate level band students and is open to enrollment by audition. Members of this ensemble are members of the marching band as Cadet / J.V. members and typically will not be eligible for varsity performing position. Class focus is on developing skills and building confidence as a performer. This group will perform at concerts, football games, pep rallies and parades. However, UIL contests will not be a part of this ensemble’s developmental focus.

Color Guard: This is an active performing group that incorporates flags, rifles, and sabers as well as other equipment in combination with dance in an interpretive musical setting. This group performs with the marching band, and then has an independent competitive indoor season during the spring semester. Enrollment is based on audition and director approval.

Cougar Marching Band: The award winning “Pride of Cougar Country” performs at all varsity football games, pep rallies, parades, special events, and marching contests. Everyone is in the marching band unless there is an unusual extenuating circumstance approved by the Director of Bands. However, assignments will be made to determine “varsity” marching band members who will be assigned competitive marching band positions. Other marching band positions include J.V. and Cadet levels. The marching band rehearses exclusively outside of the school day between August and November.

Percussion Ensemble: All active percussion students are a part of a Percussion Ensemble class in the fall semester to concentrate on the variety of skills necessary to be a well rounded percussionist. Every member of this class is a part of the marching band during the fall semester, and most will have a schedule change at the semester to be part of their assigned concert band in the spring semester. Percussionists sometimes require additional rehearsals to be involved fully. Students in the marching battery percussion should plan on not being involved in other clubs or activities during the fall semester as the schedule with band will be very busy. Some percussionists will be part of the “Cadet Drumline” which are therefore Cadet Marching Band members and will not have a performance position in the competitive marching band. Percussionists also have special performance opportunities through percussion ensembles and optional steel drum band.

Jazz Band: This ensemble meets as a class to study and perform a variety of jazz literature. The ensemble performs at concerts and at festivals in the spring semester. Opportunities are also provided for students to learn to improvise. Instrumentation is usually limited to the traditional jazz band instrumentation of saxes, trumpets, trombones, and a rhythm section. Other performance opportunities may arise to perform in the community or for school functions. All performances are mandatory.

AP Music Theory: This is an advanced course for students with a music background that wish to pursue the study of music composition, construction, and fundamentals at a college prep level. Students will take the AP music theory test.

Applied Music: This class allows for individual study of advanced music and technique. A large focus will be on All-State audition material and solo/ensemble literature. Time will also be dedicated to the study of music theory. This is an excellent opportunity for students who wish to pursue a future music degree.

Twirling: Twirling is offered at Canyon H.S. as an auxiliary unit to the marching band. Twirlers must be a member of either the band (play an instrument), or a member of the color guard. Twirlers will perform on the track while the band plays songs in the stands. The twirlers will perform their primary instrument with the band during half-time performances. The twirlers showcase their skills along with the dance team during half-time shows. Twirlers may also be asked to perform at parades and pep rallies at the final decision of the band director. One twirling “Captain” may be named to help organize the line. Costuming expense and expense of twirling lessons is the responsibility of the student / parent. Costumes should be approved by the band directors prior to any decisions made.

Attendance Policy

1. Attendance at all band events is mandatory unless otherwise stated.
2. In the event a student must be absent from a rehearsal or performance, the director should be notified in writing or via e-mail at least two weeks prior to the event whenever possible. This notice does not necessarily assure that the student's absence will be excused.
3. Absences will automatically be considered unexcused if no written communication is received from a parent/guardian.
4. Student employment cannot interfere with scheduled rehearsals or performances. Work is not an excused absence from an event and is not an excuse to leave an event early or arrive late.
5. School sponsored conflicts (athletic, club, or other school program) must be cleared at least two weeks ahead of time with the director. In most cases of rehearsal/practice conflicts with another organization, a compromise should be reached between the group director(s) and student(s). If a student chooses to participate in multiple school organizations, they must be willing to share their time equally between the groups. Absence from a band event due to an unapproved school sponsored conflict will be counted as unexcused. Absence due to a pre-approved school sponsored conflict will be excused.
6. Illness or death in the family are usually the only acceptable excused absences that do not require pre-approval.
7. No excuses, either written or verbal, will be accepted after the event in question unless it applies to number (6) of this policy.
8. Unexcused absences will typically result in a grade reduction due to the student's inability to meet specific TEKS (Texas Essential Knowledge and Skills) for the course related to the event missed.
9. Unexcused absence(s) may result in loss of performance privileges on a temporary or permanent basis as determined by the director(s).

Grading Policy

The band follows the CISD grading policy and evaluates students on the Music TEKS:

45% Major / 35% Quizzes / 20% Daily work.

- Major 45%:
 - Attendance (Demonstrated TEKS Proficiencies at Required Rehearsals and Performances)
- Quizzes 35%
 - Objective Pass-offs (Class Assigned Objective Mastery)
- Daily Work 20%:
 - Daily Rehearsal Grades (Etiquette)

Notes:

- Note: Attendance is mandatory at events in order to meet the TEKS for the course. Performances and rehearsals are "Major" grades. Unexcused absence(s) may result in the student's inability to successfully meet the TEKS for the course and the student's grade being lowered accordingly.
- Objective Pass Offs are evaluated using the Canyon Band Music Performance Standards for an objective evaluation.
- Failure to complete objectives at a mastery level may result in loss of performance privileges on a temporary or permanent basis as determined by the director(s).

MUSIC PERFORMANCE STANDARDS - CANYON BANDS; COMAL ISD

BOX 5 100% DIV 1 +	100	This performance challenges the listener's concept of the ideal performance . Professional in all aspects, the performer and the presentation may be compared to the finest musicians on the instrument.
	98
	96
	94	This performance distinguishes itself as among the best of high school or college level, worthy of selection to an All-State ensemble. The technical execution is perceived as flawless . Articulation and tone quality are clear and never a distraction, and the performance has the qualities of a mature musical performance.
	92
	90
	88	The technical demands are all executed fluently . Minor inconsistencies in tone, technique, or musicality may be rarely present, but only in extreme ranges or at extreme dynamic levels. Moments of artistic expression are frequent, as all elements of a well-prepared performance are in place. This could be considered worthy of TMEA Area recognition.

	84
BOX 4 90% DIV 1	80
	78	The music is performed correctly and confidently . This would qualify for a UIL First Division Rating or membership in a TMEA Region Ensemble. Slight errors, if they occur, are handled without stopping. Tempos are appropriate for the music being performed and for the skill level of the performer. Breathing is natural and rarely if ever causes a distraction.

Rhythms are performed correctly, but may be uneven or have a tendency to change tempo. Musical elements such as phrasing, dynamics, and proper intonation are clearly apparent but not fully refined . Correct articulation is present although it may be inconsistent. Tone quality is characteristic throughout most of the performance, although tone may suffer in more technical passages. Student Behavior Standards

Students in the Canyon H.S. Band Program are expected to follow all outlined rules of the organization and rules in the Comal ISD student code of conduct at all times. The Canyon H.S. Band represents CHS, Comal ISD, and the community of New Braunfels, TX. If a student is assigned disciplinary action by a school administrator such as ISS, OSS, or Alternative School Placement, the student's actions will be reviewed by the band staff for potential further consequences as outlined below:

Discipline & Consequences

Part A

1. Failure to abide by classroom / rehearsal rules, performance rules, or travel rules may require a disciplinary consequence(s).
2. Consequences may include:
 - Student conference
 - Parent Conference
 - Loss of performance position (marching band)
 - Loss of chair or band position (concert band)
 - Grade reduction (per rehearsal etiquette)
 - Band Demerit (See Part B below)
 - Office Referral
 - Removal from band on a temporary or permanent basis.

Discipline & Consequences

Part B

Demerit System

A demerit may be issued for tardiness to rehearsal, missing equipment, unfinished assignments, or any outlined rule infraction during a band rehearsal or performance. Each demerit consists of a 30-45 minute 'reflection period' in which the issued student attends and participates in work that may benefit the band, community, or him/herself. The final reflection activity is decided upon by a director. Multiple demerits may affect a student's position in the band.

*Failure to attend a "Reflection Period" may result in loss of the student's performance position with the band and potential loss of travel privileges for the week.

Repeated demerits may result in more permanent revised placement within in the band or out of band.

Discipline & Consequences

Part C

Probationary Contract

Students may be assigned a probationary contract with the band program. This might result from disciplinary concerns, attendance concerns, or academic concerns that affect participation with the band. A probationary contract lists areas for improvement, dates that must be met for improvement, and consequences if improvement is not met. This can lead to removal from an ensemble, or removal from the band program, if improvement is not made.

SAMPLE: Canyon HS Band - Student Probationary Contract

Name:	Date:	Probationary Dates:
--------------	--------------	----------------------------

Concerns for improvement:

Probationary Terms:

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____

Parent Signature: _____ Date: _____

Director Signature: _____ Date: _____

Auditions

Students are placed in their perspective sections by audition. Students must audition each year for placement in the CHS Band. Additional auditions are often held for supplemental sections in the band including drumline, color guard, twirlers, and the drum majors. Auditions are evaluated by outside adjudicators whenever possible. A student's academic record, attendance record, and band record may be a percentage of the audition score. Failure to complete the audition process may forfeit the opportunity to participate in band. All audition decisions are final.

Challenges

Challenges are available within the concert band placements at assigned times throughout the year. Challenges are handled by completing a challenge form which is available in the band office. These forms are to be turned into the assigned director on the day that both the challenger and challenged have signed the form. Music played for the challenge will be chosen by the director. You may only challenge one chair at a time. Movement is possible between bands by winning 3 consecutive challenges. However, movement between bands is dependent upon class schedule allowance. This should be cleared with your specific counselor and directors before beginning the challenge process. Challenges are usually assigned one week after the form is turned in and processed, however, during the contest season challenges may often be postponed to not conflict with performance priorities. When challenging you must play the part (1st., 2nd., etc.) of the person in the upper chair. Refusing to play a challenge forfeits the chair. Challenge winners are chosen using the Canyon Bands Performance Standards. Challenges are only available for chair placement within the band and are not available for specific instrument placements in the band (ex. front ensemble to battery percussion, or flute to piccolo, etc). Challenges are also not available for officer positions in the band. A person may only challenge an individual (5) times. If they have not won the challenge after five attempts, then they may no longer challenge.

Eligibility

Band/Color Guard students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic achievement. U.I.L. policy mandates that any student that has a failing grade after the first (6) weeks of school, or any regular grading period after that point, loses eligibility to participate in extracurricular activities for a minimum of three weeks. They may resume participation if they are passing all classes after the three week progress report (plus grace period) issued after the failing grading period. If the student is not passing all classes after three weeks, they must wait to regain eligibility for another three weeks. An eligibility calendar is available at the beginning of every school year with specific dates.

Private Lessons

Canyon High School Music Enrichment Program

Independent study with a professional on one's instrument is an extremely valuable resource. Private instructors offer students the opportunity to study advanced techniques, solo literature, get help with band music, and much more. Active private instruction on an instrument is part of what makes a young musician successful and is of great benefit to the student in gaining advanced skills. Most lessons are ½ hour lessons once per week, and the CHS Band staff can assist in arranging a qualified private contracted instructor for your student. The cost is variable depending on the instructor, however, most average $18 - $20 per week for a ½ hour lesson, or $30 - $35 for a full hour/class period depending on the degree level of the private instructor. All of our approved instructors are experienced educators that will work to provide a valuable service at a very reasonable rate. Most lessons are arranged to take place in the CHS band facility.

If you are interested in setting up lessons for your student,
