Freedom is not free

This year's ceremony honors the following:
the 80th Ceremony at Loma Vista, the 100th Anniversary of WWI end and Gold Star Families.

80th Ceremony ~ This year will be the 80th ceremony begun by C. Stanley Chapman and family decorating about 50 graves with a flag and cross in 1939. R. Lester Clever continued the effort from 1955 to 1979 when Buck Catlin took over and passed the lead to Ed Paul in 2008. What began with the efforts of one family is now a community effort involving hundreds of people over 4 days to decorate over 4,200 graves.

C. Stanley Chapman

100th Anniversary of WWI End ~ The War to End All Wars concluded on November 11, 1918, now celebrated as Veterans Day.

Gold Star Families ~ The Gold Star movement originates from World War

I, when families of deployed service members began the tradition of displaying Service Flags in the windows of their homes. Each gold star indicated the family had a service member who was killed in action.

Today two forms of Gold Star pins are issued to surviving spouses, parents, children and siblings of fallen service members. The Gold Star Lapel Pin has a purple background surrounding a gold star. This pin indicates the service member was killed in action. The other pin has a solid gold background with a gold star. This pin indicates the service member passed away while on active duty status in service to our nation, no matter the cause of their death.

To aid families of the fallen during the Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom campaigns, service branches developed programs that offer case management advocacy, financial counseling and supportive activities, to survivors. The Army established Survivor Outreach Services and the Navy recently implemented the Navy Gold Star Program.

The Navy launched their official Survivor long-term support program for surviving families of Sailors who die while on active duty in October 2014. Navy Gold Star is an inclusive program - regardless of military branch of service, location, or manner of death. The unwavering commitment to military through the launch of the program provides Survivors with support and dedicated outreach when, and for as long as needed. The coordinators are located all over the United States and are ready to help in any way they can.

Navy outreach/support to military families of the fallen.
