

Cardinal Flower

Cardinal Flower is an important nectar plant for butterflies and hummingbirds. This plant is known to have medicinal value. Some Native American tribes were known to incorporate this herb into ceremonies.

NATIVE TO EASTERN
NORTH AMERICA

Lobelia cardinalis

- Hardiness: Zone 3-9
- Size: 3-4'
- Flower: Scarlet, sometimes pink or white in early to late summer
- Culture: Prefers partial shade and moist conditions
- Uses: Perennial border, stream edge, moist meadow, wildlife, birds, butterflies, hummingbirds, cut flower, medicinal, fragrant, showy flower, love charm