

Religious Studies 35 Review

- 1. Considering distracted driving, discuss the implications of ethics, morals and conscience. In your response, consider explaining the ethical theories of Aristotle, Kant and Levinas and one's conscience (St. Thomas More) in the moral decision making process.
- 2. Describe, in detail, two ways our world/society/community would be improved if people were to live according to Jesus' teaching in the Sermon on the Mount. What would change? How would the change make the world a better place? Check Matthew chapters 5-7 for your response.
- 3. Based on our discussion of Healthy Relationships and the Five Love Languages, discuss 5 ways you can to meet your partner's needs and strengthen your relationships.
- 4. Based on our discussion (and notes) of the purpose of the first and second Creation accounts, explain how they apply to God's covenant with his people and to morality.
