

Native American Arts and Crafts Council

Riverbank Traditional Pow Wow

June 2, 3, and 4, 2017

Louis Adado Riverfront Park
Lansing, Michigan
Public Invited
Free Admission

Friday, June 2

Education Day for Local Schools

Saturday, June 3

10:00 am Vendors Open

Grand Entry 1:00 pm

Ruby John Performance 3:30 pm

Entertainment and Open Mic 6:00 pm

Featuring Jody Gaskin

Sunday, June 4

Pancake Breakfast Fundraiser 8:30 am

Sunday Morning Auction 10:00 am

Grand Entry 12:00 pm

Closing Ceremony 4:00 pm

Highlights

- ◆ Native American Dancing
- ◆ Drumming and Singing
- ◆ Indian Village
- ◆ Arts and Crafts
- ◆ Native American Food
- ◆ Free Children's Activities
- ◆ Raffles throughout each day

Bring your lawn chair!

www.nativeamericanacc.org

For more info: Robin
Eva

Phone: 517-721-1502
Phone: 517-388-0916

Email: Robin.Menefee@yahoo.com

Email: eva.menefee@yahoo.com

Vendor Information: Melody Phone: 517-202-5220

2017 Sponsors: Michigan Council for the Arts and Cultural Affairs, Arts Council of Greater Lansing Creative Youth Program, City of Lansing, Lansing Convention and Visitor's Bureau, Lansing School District, Lansing Community College, Firekeeper's Casino and Resort, Gun Lake Tribe, Sault Ste Marie Tribe, Grand Travers Band, MSU Native American Institute, MSU Native American Studies, and MSU Museum Traditional Arts Program