ONE ISLAND FAMILY Sunday programs:

October 24 at 11 a.m. SMALL GROUP MINISTRY discussion group by Zoom. After good response to our September SGM conversation, we offer another guided discussion for deep listening on the topic of our UU First Principle: "Inherent Worth and Dignity". Members will receive a Zoom invite by emailed on Friday, October 22. Join us to share your personal stories and life experiences.

Words for Gathering: "I think that one of our most important tasks is to convince others that there's nothing to fear in differences; that difference, in fact, is one of the healthiest and most invigorating of human characteristics without which life would become meaningless. Here lies the power of the liberal way: not in making the whole world Unitarian Universalist, but in helping ourselves and others to see some of the possibilities inherent in viewpoints other than one's own; in encouraging the free interchange of ideas; in welcoming fresh approaches to the problems of life; in urging the fullest, most vigorous use of critical self-examination." Adlai Stevenson

"The topic of US immigrations has been hotly debated for at least the last year. Recognizing that it is a topic that has the ability to polarize let us ever be aware of Stevenson's words and discuss the topic from the perspective of radical hospitality and becoming aware of the differences that unite us.

ONE ISLAND FAMILY Program Planners have been hard at work on November programs. We are working on outdoor locations for the first two Sundays. Details will be announced in our November monthly newsletter!

Remember: If you miss one of our newsletters sent to your email by Pete, our administrator, you can go to our website: oneislandfamily.org and click on "news" to see our latest weekly or monthly events. We do not include the zoom links on the website, to protect our meetings from unknown intruders. But if you are new to One Island Family, just contact the office (305) 296-4369 and leave a message to be added to our Zoom request list.
