Why Do We Do That?

What Happens if Someone Drops a Consecrated Host?

Despite our best efforts, and this is as true in our liturgical celebrations as in all of life, accidents happen. Occasionally at Mass, a host may be dropped or some of the Precious Blood could even be spilled from the chalice, despite the best efforts of the priests, deacons, and extraordinary ministers of holy Communion assisting at the liturgy.

So, when a host is dropped or the Precious Blood is spilled, we can take guidance from the U.S. Bishops' statement Norms for the Distribution for Holy Communion Under Both Kinds:

"All ministers of Holy Communion should show the greatest reverence for the Most Holy Eucharist by their demeanor, their attire, and the manner in which they handle the consecrated bread or wine. Should there be any mishap — as when, for example, the consecrated wine is spilled from the chalice — then the affected "area . . . should be washed with water, and this water should be then poured into the sacrarium."

According to no. 280 of the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, the general rule is that a dropped host is picked up by the minister distributing Communion and reverently consumed. The minister should be careful to make sure that no other particles from the host remain on the ground. As we see in the instruction from the bishops, the Precious Blood would be absorbed (customarily with a purificator) and the area attentively and reverently washed with water which would then be disposed of properly.

"The books or the music in which we thought the beauty was located will betray us if we trust to them; it was not in them, it only came through them, and what came through them was longing [...] For they are not the thing itself; they are only the scent of a flower we have not found, the echo of a tune we have not heard, news from a country we have never yet visited." C.S. Lewis

Families in Faith

ALL SAINTS DAY/ ALL SOULS DAY

Need an alternate family religious experience IF you cannot attend Mass on either of these holydays?

November 1- - Suggestion: Plan together for an intentional sharing about each of your Baptismal names. If appropriate, what is your chosen Confirmation name? What does it mean? What can you share about that saint? WHY did you chose that name? End with a "Litany" of your family saints and St. Pius Tenth, pray for us.

November 2 — Suggestion: Schedule a stop at any cemetery you are near (or where loved ones are buried) and pray for all those who have died and await the eternal vision of God's face. Maybe someone will pray for you someday, too. Or, sit in a quiet place at home and pray for your ancestors in faith.

TODAY IS FAMILY "B" SUNDAY

Family "A" Sunday –Enjoy your family. The virtual lessons are already in your "home toolbox" if you wish to have a textbook-based lesson. If you have difficulty and get a prompt for a class passcode for Alive in Christ, our codes are: gr. 1 =!!aicstu!!21107, gr.2 = !!aicstu!!21207, gr. 3 =!!aicstu!!21307, you get the pattern here for grades 1-8.

ALPHA for EVANGELIZATION

Our Parish is beginning to experience the platform for renewal called ALPHA. Our next gathering is October 31.
"Jesus, your grace is unending. You provide us YOUR Holy Spirit for all that we need to grow spiritually. May your Holy Spirit guide our ALPHA team!"

National Vocations Awareness Week

National Vocations Awareness Week is celebrated November 1-7, 2020 and is an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promote vocations to the priesthood, diaconate and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations. For ideas on how to celebrate this week, please visit our Vocations website bit.ly/3mebqyT or the USCCB site, bit.ly/3jkTNeV

Everyday Stewardship:

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

Calculating Love

Have you ever Googled the word "love"? If you did you may have come across something called the Love Calculator. It is a website where you can supply two names, and the percentage chance of a successful relationship is calculated. Curious, I entered my name and my wife's. Twenty percent! I hope my wife doesn't read this!

I then decided to add my name and God. A whopping thirteen percent! Then for the last attempt, I put in my name and Jesus. A very disappointing zero percent! Am I that unlovable? Of course, then I read the small print at the bottom of the page: "Please note that this site has no serious intention whatsoever." Shocking!

The truth is, the modern world increasingly seems to have no real idea what love is or how to determine when love is real. That makes the seemingly simple words of Jesus about loving God and your neighbor very complex indeed. How can you love God with your all your heart, soul, and mind when you have no idea what the act of loving means? And then, what constitutes loving a neighbor? To make it more complicated, Jesus commands you to love them like you love yourself. I bet you can agree with me that there are a lot of people out there who do not even come close to loving themselves. Knowing what love is in modern times is just not that easy. How is a well-meaning person able to find out the true meaning of love?

Renovation UPDATES

Week of October 11-17:

Although the changes aren't as dramatic, changes are coming on our hilltop.

Drywall has been delivered and is being installed on the new extensions inside the church. The concrete base for the new baptismal font has been poured, and electrical and plumbing are being completed.

Our renovation was also featured in the Owensboro Messenger Inquirer on October 10th. You can read the full article online.
