

JEWEL THERESA CLABUESCH

1912 - 1993

Jewel Theresa Clabuesch, 80, a resident of Pigeon since 1932, passed away Tuesday, March 16 in at Ingham Medical Center in Lansing.

She was born Jewel Pinkston to the late Harley and Lulu (Butler) Pinkston on May 9, 1912 in Illinois.

She and Walter Clabuesch were married in 1935 and opened Clabuesch Electric in the spring of 1936 in Pigeon, which they operated for many years before retiring in 1971. Her husband passed away in 1990.

Mrs. Clabuesch is survived by one daughter, Jewel (John) Bos of East Lansing; two sons, W. Fred Clabuesch of Alexandria, VA., and James (Linda) Clabuesch of Pigeon; seven grandchildren, Julie Stocum, Jonathan and Jeffrey Bos, James, Kathryn, Virginia and Michael Clabuesch; one great-granddaughter, Meghan Stocum; two sisters, Wilma Gall and Virginia Baker; two brothers, Blaine and Rolan Pinkston. Her husband, Walter, preceded her in death in 1990.

A memorial service will be announced at a later date.

In memory of Mrs. Clabuesch, those desiring to may make contributions to the Childrens' Leukemia Foundation, 19022 W. 10 Mile Rd., Southfield, MI 48075.

The family is being served by the Gorsline-Runciman Co., Lansing Chapel.