Team Rep. Reports

Academic Quiz Team – Wendy Hacker

- Swept Glen Este
- Got swept by Anderson

Baseball – Ali McGaughey

- Breakfast with Santa was a huge success! This has been the biggest one to date with over 600 people in attendance.
- The Kings Baseball Varsity and JV teams will travel to Vero Beach, FL the week of Spring Break to train at Historic Dodgertown. Fundraisers are in the works and we'll have more information regarding those soon.
- Winter workouts are still underway with weightlifting Mon, Wed and Fri from 2:45pm-4:00pm and Hitting and Pitching on Saturday mornings from 8:00am-10:00am.

Boys' JH Basketball

No report.

Girls' JH Basketball – Joy Hicks and Joe Rizzo

- Combined B team 3-0
- 7th A 1-4 rough start
- 8th A team 5-0 w/ Josie Rizzo playing through a bloody nose scoring double digits in the last few minutes to get the team to OT and then the W to remain undefeated! Very exciting finish against Loveland.

Boys' Freshman Basketball

No report.

Men's HS Basketball – Lori Philpot

- V 2-1 loss to Moeller. Clay Spivey recognized as player of the game with W at Anderson last night.
- JV 0-3
- Fresh 0-3

Women's HS Basketball – Melissa Goldschmidt

- Playing Glen Este tonight and Turpin at home on Saturday. Toys for Tots Saturday at the game. Christmas tournament over the holidays.
- Varsity is undefeated, with a record of 5-0.
- JV record is 2-2.
- Freshman undefeated.

Bowling – Tara Herd

- The Kings Bowling Team has a record number of kids--48 members-we have 6 teams...men's varsity, women's varsity, a red and blue JV team for men and a red and blue team for women.
- The men's varsity team is off to a great start (5-0 in the ECC). They have two bowlers Matthew Oberlin and Joe Ventre in the top 3 for total average in the ECC.
- Last night they got the W over Loveland led by Joe Ventre (233) and Eric Middlekamp (213).
- Our women's varsity started the year off nicely by beating Amelia. Senior Lauren Goslee has been leading the way.
- Unfortunately, our women lost to Loveland yesterday.
- KBT spirit wear has been ordered and numerous teachers wanted to buy some KBT gear.

Dance team is going well. Twenty-two girls make up the team this year...9- 8th graders and 13-7th graders. They have performed three times at 7/8 basketball games after missing one performance due to the emergency button incident. Those performances were all to a Christmas tune. At tonight's game, they debuted their hip-hop routine. Everyone is having fun and they are excited for another performance tomorrow night before breaking until January.
