

Seurnyck, David F.

Mr. David F. Seurnyck, 56, of Alberta, Ala. and formerly of Gagetown passed away Friday, Jan. 23, 2009 at his residence.

He was born in Cass City, a son of Ila and the late Leo Seurnyck, on Feb. 18, 1952.

Dave was a dear friend to all who knew him. He enjoyed sports and hanging out with his buddies. In his early years, he farmed along with his dad and brother, Al. After he left farming, he had a career in construction and spent several years living and working in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. He was most recently living in Alberta, Ala., where he was self-employed. His death brings great sadness to his family and to all who knew him. He will be deeply missed.

Surviving are his mother, Ila Seurnyck, and his family: Al (Lori) Seurnyck, Jeannie (Clare) Comment, Marylee Houghton, Shelly (John) Donaldson, Ruth Cummings and Gary Cummings; several nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews; and a step-daughter, Stephanie Anderson.

Dave was preceded in death by his dad, Leo, and a niece, Jeannie Murphy.

Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 11 a.m. Tuesday, Feb. 3, 2009, at St. Agatha Catholic Church in Gagetown, with the Rev. Steve Filion and Sr. Dorothy Ann Blasko officiating. Visitation will be from 10 a.m. to time of Mass Tuesday at the church.

There will be no visitation at the Gagetown Funeral Chapel.

The family has suggested memorials go to the St. Agatha food pantry.
