EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION WANTED

Sunday is the day the Church keeps sacred to the Lord, the day we gather for Mass. It speaks clearly to the sick, that they are truly part of the community when they are remembered in the prayer at the Sunday Mass and when the Word and Sacrament are brought to them directly Mass is finished. It also speaks clearly to the rest of the parish of the importance that the sick have in the community.

When it is not possible to take Communion to the sick from Sunday Mass, it can be taken from any Mass or from the reserved Sacrament in the tabernacle. With regard to the time – it is best to have a mutually agreed time for both the sick person and the minister. If you would like to offer yourself to serve your community in this way, please contact Deacon Geoff.
