

Conversations for Peace

for Students, Faculty, Families,
Communities, Organizations
& the World

Dear Friend of Peace,

I have worked as a community organizer since 1976 to help create peaceful, creative communities and a peaceful creative world.

Today, I do educational programs in human development, communication, positive habit change and relationships, and am working on a program called Family & Community Media.

Whenever possible, I facilitate Conversations for Peace for students, faculty, families, organizations and communities for a more peaceful world.

In colleges and universities, you can invite students and faculty who teach psychology, sociology, social work, economics, public policy, family medicine and everyone who cares about the wellbeing of people, families and communities.

Please contact me to work with you and your colleagues to create a lively Conversation for Peace.

Toward a peaceful, creative world,

Sanford Hinden

Testimonials

Sandy Hinden is one of the most humane, compassionate, loving human beings I have ever met. He speaks and acts from deep wisdom about what people need – and what the world needs now. I trust him and have learned immensely from him.

Ronald Gross
Co-chair, University Seminar on Innovation
Columbia University

Sandy Hinden is a very exceptional human being entirely devoted to a better, ideal world. I have known him for more than 30 years. He constantly inspired me for my work and efforts at the United Nations. He had ceaseless great ideas.

Dr. Robert Muller
Former UN Assistant Secretary General
Cofounder, UN University for Peace, Costa Rica

Sandy Hinden is a visionary in this time of cynicism, a creator in times of apathy, and persistent amidst times of great change.

Lesley Vann
United Nations Association, USA

Thank you for being an integral, indispensable and vital part of the process of helping all of us explore the dynamics of positive change to improve our quality of life, our quality of being, our value to ourselves and others, and most importantly our value to the world!
