Greetings North Carolina A. Philip Randolph Institute Supporter:

The North Carolina State affiliate of the A. Philip Randolph Institute will host its,

Forty Fourth Asa Philip Randolph Annual Education Awards Banquet and Birthday Celebration
Saturday, April 14, 2018 from 6:00 pm until 10:00 pm
Embassy Suites by Hilton Wilmington Riverfront, 9 Estell Lee Place, Wilmington, NC 28401

The Theme of our Annual Education Awards Banquet and Birthday Celebration, Healing the Community, is a mighty roar and hail throughout our community, state, nation and world. It is also the past, present and future essence and mission of the North Carolina A. Philip Randolph Institute.

This event is our opportunity to spotlight outstanding contributions of community activists, elected officials and labor leaders who, following Mr. Randolph's legacy, have made strides toward sustaining freedom, social equality and worker's rights. Human rights activists and supporters from across the state will come together to celebrate the legacy of Asa Philip Randolph.

North Carolina Supreme Court Justice, Michael R. Morgan will be the keynote speaker. Each day Judge Morgan works to improve the justice system throughout the state of North Carolina and is dedicated to "justice for all" no matter what a person's location and/or economic stature. He knows and understands that economic justice requires a fair and equitable justice system and works collaboratively with the community to ensure its continuous growth and healing.

Proceeds from this event will support voter engagement, voter education, get-out the-vote (G.O.T.V.) strategies and community service programs such as closing the health disparity gap in our community, environmental justice and feeding the hungry initiatives. The North Carolina A. Philip Randolph Institute is a non-partisan, non-profit 501 (c) (3) organization. Our officers, board of directors, and members are committed to increasing volunteerism. The North Carolina State Affiliate solicits your support through sponsorship in the Asa Philip Randolph Souvenir Journal and enjoying an evening of celebration and dining. (See enclosure for ticket and ad prices.)

This promises to be a beautiful event that will take place in the heart of Wilmington, North Carolina during a very exciting weekend. This is the weekend of the Annual Azalea Festival, therefore for your convenience; rooms are available at Embassy Suites by Hilton Wilmington Riverfront. There is no room block. However, you can make reservation at 910.765.1131.

APRI's mission from our founding to the present has been to fight for racial equality and economic justice for minorities, the poor and working people. North Carolina A. Philip Randolph Institute, Inc. and local chapters across the state appreciate your participation and support with our annual event to help us achieve our mission.

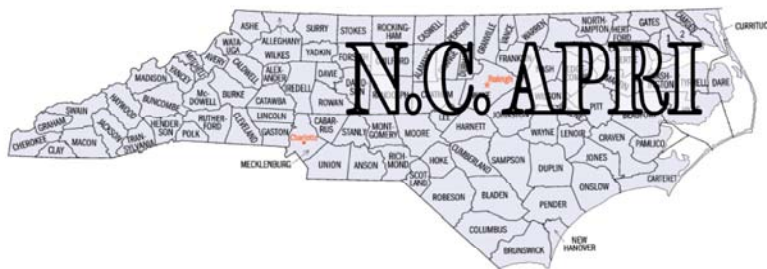

In Solidarity,

Mary K. Montford
