SUNDAY SERVICES 11 AM

November 17- Richard Puente "Forever Families Built in Love"- sharing the story of his life experience as a foster father and adoptive parent. Richard is a board member, and former president, of the Florida Keys Foster and Adoptive Parent Association.

November 24- Rev. Doug Slagle- "Indigenous People and the First 'Thanksgiving' Values"- Rev. Doug will discuss the Native American value of respect for all creation as the foundation for how they implicitly expressed gratitude. Please join him and other One Island Family friends to consider a new way to give thanks.

ONE ISLAND FAMILY CHOIR will start again on November 24. Nancy 3, Hoffman has sent us the exciting news that she will be going to Romania "for a tour based on Klezmer music and dances from Eastern European Jews". She will return to Key West to play for us on November 17 and she will plan our first gathering of our impromptu choir the following Sunday.
