JABGA Showmanship

Showmanship is the ability to present you and your animal in the best form possible. It is the appearance, the presentation, and the knowledge of your animal and the Boer goat industry. Showmanship begins long before you arrive at the show and is dependent on hard work and practice with your animal.

1. There will be 2 showmanship competitions representing both market/commercial livestock and ABGA breeding livestock. Participants may participate in both showmanship classes.
2. Age division will be determined based on the contestant's age on January 1st, for the division of competition.
 - a. Junior Division Under 8 years of age
 - b. Intermediate Division 9-13
 - c. Senior Division- 14 years and over
3. Each exhibitor must use their own animal for the showmanship competition if they have one entered into the JABGA Sanctioned, or market/commercial show.
4. Participants that do not have an animal entered into any JABGA competition may borrow an animal for showmanship purposes only. That selected animal can only be used by one exhibitor during the competition and cannot be exhibited by multiple participants.
5. Dress would be jeans and nice shirt. Preferably closed leather shoes and a belt, but not required.
6. The Top 10 Showman of each age division are selected by the judge, the official placing will not be announced until the banquet.
7. All Senior Division participants are required to show in showmanship to compete in the JABGA regional show program.

JABGA Sales Talk

Sales talk uses a live setting complete with a live animal or a photo and potential buyers. This contest is a mock sales situation—you are selling your animal to buyers. The purpose is to evaluate the effectiveness of the presentation and the contestant’s ability to merchandise Boer Goats. Contestants will be judged on their knowledge of the animal they are selling, their ability to relay important information about the animal, and their overall effectiveness in convincing the judges to buy the animal.

1. Time Allotted: 5-7 minutes.
2. Materials: Live animal or a photo (no larger than 8 x 10) and a registration certificate for the animal being “sold”. If using a live animal you will need another JABGA individual to hold the animal for you during your presentation.
3. Dress: There is no required dress, but it is important to keep in mind that appearance is important when marketing yourself and your animals. Nice jeans, boots, and button down shirts are suggested.

JABGA Sales Talk Scoresheet

Circle the points that indicate your evaluation of this entry. Scores of 9-10 are superior, 7-8 are slightly above average, 4-6 are average and 1-3 are below average. Please note observations that may be helpful to contestants in preparing for next year's contest.
