A Note from our President

Winter Greetings Everyone,

It sure has been a cold one, but Spring is not far off and we are looking forward to another fun summer at our club.

Unfortunately, we had to cancel our January Spaghetti and Noodle dinners due to the weather, but we are back on schedule for the 1st and 3rd Wednesday in March.

I want to recognize Joyce Blackstone for heading up our 200 Club & Banquet on Feb. 22. Thanks Joyce!

There will be a Euchre night on March 22nd. This is always a fun night. Bring a snack to share.

Our Annual Golf Outing will be May 24 at Harbor Hills Country Club, another fun time. See Jeff O'Donnell to sign up.

Rentals are picking up. We are getting most of our corporate rentals again this year and just picked up a really nice rental. Thanks Barry!

Ox Roast planning meetings will begin soon—please see Steve Ehret to sign up to help and present any new fun ideas.

We will also be placing a 6' x 10' Newark Maennerchor banner at Don Edwards Ball Park. A fantastic complex.

Cheryl has made a large purchase of supplies and children's clothing to be donated to the schools from the Betty's Kids Fund. Thanks Cheryl!

The Trustees have designated some exciting projects such as a total bar makeover, wheelchair ramp from the rear parking lot to the pavilion, more parking lot lighting, ceiling fans in the kitchen & of course, the big one—pave the driveway and handicapped parking area. Quite the challenge, but I feel confident we will get them

I'll end with something that I am so excited and proud that we are able to be a part of: We are allowing Licking County Hospice Foundation the use of our facility from June 23 through June 26 for their children's grief camp (Camp Pathways). We also made a $500 donation for this event from our blessed Betty's Kids Fund. Hospice is so very thankful for our kind gesture.

What a great note to end on! Can't wait to see everyone.

As always, God Bless Us All Everyone.

Your President,
Mike
