Registration Information

Enrollment is on a first come, first served basis, and cannot be guaranteed until the director has received all forms, including medical and registration fees.

Tuition

Tuition payments are due on the Friday before each week of service. Full payments are due for each week, including those that have fewer days.

Parent Initial _____

Arches does not pro-rate tuition fees. For convenience, payments can be put in our mailbox or in the drop box located outside the director's door.

Late Payments

Payments received after 6pm on Friday are considered late. If payment has not been received by 6pm on Monday, your account will incur late fees.

If tuition is 7 days past due, a reevaluation of enrollment will be considered. In the event of non-payment, please understand it is your responsibility to speak with the director.

Two Week Notice

Clients who wish to discontinue childcare services with Arches must give two weeks written advanced notice of withdrawal. Your child's withdraw date will be two weeks from the date notice is given, and you will be billed accordingly, regardless of actual attendance. Since payments at Arches are not prorated per day, two weeks' tuition will be due from the time notice is given.

Parent Handbook

Arches parent handbook should fully inform of all policies and procedures of the program. Among other topics, I have now been informed of the policies regarding release of children, discipline, tuition, fees, communicable disease, administration of medication, medical emergencies, child abuse reporting, late pick-up fees, and termination from the program. The handbook should serve as a quick reference to answer most questions.
