

LUNCHEON & FASHION SHOW

April 21, 2011

Gather at 11:30 with Lunch at Noon

Spring Fling Fashion Show

Marie Johnson of Stein Mart will be sowing seeds of fashion ideas with an array of the latest Spring trends. Plan to attend this special event and bring a guest to enjoy our member models in their Floridian outfits. There will be beautiful centerpieces and many opportunities to win a wide variety of door prizes.

We certainly thank Susan Morrow and Pat Cregar for their efforts in planning this fashion show.

Joan's Journal

Hi, Once again this was another great luncheon. Pat Fluno, my hat is off to you. Our program today was awesome. Thanks to all of you who brought new or unwanted items from which to choose. What a terrific selection! All of the excitement of the drawing and then Bingo on top of that. Well done, my friends! I am delighted to tell you that we made $144 for this year's charity, The Russell Home. Our monies go for worthy causes, and they are SO appreciative. The three ladies from Ohio who were guests gave me an extra $10.00 dollars to add. Such thoughtful ladies... Hey, that's what it's all about.

I hope you all enjoyed the afternoon as much as I did... and now we are looking forward to our annual Fashion Show. Susan Morrow and Pat Cregar are busy working to make the Fashion Show a huge success.

I know we are in good hands, since they have done this before, and you know if the fashions come from Stein Mart, they will be great.

Gloria and Martha...job well done. I think our group has always enjoyed the "Mason Jar," but they outdid themselves today. The food was warm, delicious and served in a friendly manner. I think lots of the ladies would be pleased with a repeat performance.

Barbara and Linda from Inside the Arts continue to do a great job with different activities. I've been on the Boat Ride and it's fun. Lunch at Mt. Dora is always nice. Maybe some of our "newbies" will join us. I hope so. Of course, High Tea at the Grand Floridian is always fun...lots of girls all dressed up having a "grown up" day.

For those of you who have volunteered to work at Bay Hill...have fun. I wish I could help, as planned, but I can't stand on my foot for that long. Good luck, Judy.

Don't forget to call Joan Lenard if you can attend the cooking class. I will have family visiting so I can't make it...but it sounds like lots of fun.

Ladies, it is important that you call for your reservations for lunch in a timely manner. Please remember that calls MUST be received by 1:00 p.m. on April 14th for next month's luncheon. This is IMPORTANT. Failure to do this makes it VERY difficult for the Reservation ladies. These gals do a very good job...let's not upset them. Also, please do NOT arrive before 11:30 am. They need to set up their table first.

I enjoyed having Patricia La Mothe (a potential Newcomer) at our table today. She was lots of fun and I hope she joins and continues to come to our events.

Sherry McFarland...I hope you enjoy your free lunch, and a new member, Jenny Iacovazzi was the recipient of $76.50 from our 50/50 drawing. We hope you enjoy your surprises, ladies.

OK, I'm off to eat corned beef and cabbage...aren't you?

Many thanks to Gloria Irwin, a native of England, for putting us in an Irish mood.

Have a great month. See you soon.

In friendship ... Joan

Sherry McFarland won the free lunch.

New member Jenny Iacovazzi won the 50/50 prize of $76.50.

Birthday ladies: Sherry McFarland, Brenda Jones, Charlotte Becker, Linda Selby and Sharon DeRose.

Pat Fluno, VP Programs, was our steadfast Bingo caller.

New member Pam Richards.

Barbara Wiseman 407-365-9121
Linda Gallagher 407-359-1893

We are going to take another boat ride on Wednesday, April 13th — a narrated tour of the Dora Canal. The two hour tour leaves at 10:00 a.m. from the Yacht Club (located at the end of 4th Ave.) in Mt. Dora. The cost is $18.00 per person for the tour.

Afterwards you are free to have lunch at one of the many restaurants such as the Lakeside Inn or The Windsor Rose Tea Room (reservations suggested) or shop. Please make your check payable to Barbara Wiseman and mail it to her at 920 Torrey Pine Drive, Winter Springs, FL 32708. You can contact her at 407-365-9121 to make a reservation. We are limited to 24 people for the tour, so contact Barbara as soon as possible. The last date for reservations will be April 6th. Once you purchase a ticket, it is yours. The boat is covered so we will be doing this event rain or shine.

The event we have planned for May is the High Tea at the Grand Floridian Hotel on Wednesday, May 11th at 2:00 p.m. We were only able to obtain 35 reservations for this event. Due to the enormous sign-up response at the March Luncheon, we do not have any spaces available at this time. However, we are going to take names and phone numbers of any ladies who would like to be placed on the "waiting list." We realize that between now and the date the payment is due, there are some people who will be canceling. Please contact Linda Gallagher at 407-359-1893 if you have any questions about the Tea or being put on the waiting list. The cost of the Tea is $26.00 per person and the checks are to be made out to LINDA GALLAGHER - 664 Saranac Drive, Winter Springs, FL 32708 Payment is due no later than May 2nd. Once your payment is made, the ticket for this event is yours. There will be no refunds.

April 19th- Cutting for Stone by Abraham Verghese

Shiva and Marion Praise Stone come into the world as identical twins attached at the skull. Their father, a British surgeon living in Ethiopia, abandons them within moments of their birth, and their mother (a nun who kept her pregnancy secret from everyone) dies without holding them in her arms. The two brothers are raised in and around the hospital in which they are born. Called Missing, a misspelling of the intended name Mission, its name coincides with one of the major themes of the novel: missing people, missing fathers, missing clues, etc.

Abraham Verghese's sprawling family saga spans nearly fifty years and takes the readers from Ethiopia, to New York, to Boston, and back to the small village in Africa where the story first began.

Marion narrates this epic novel, taking the reader back to when his mother first makes her voyage to Africa as a young first novice of the Carmelite Order of Madras. While traveling there, she meets Thomas Stone, a skilled British surgeon, and the first glimmering of their love begins.

In the first part of the book, the reader is introduced to Matron (Missing's wise leader), Hema (a gynecologist who becomes the boys' adoptive mother), Ghosh (a warm and caring doctor who imbues Marion with the desire to become a surgeon), Rosina (the boys' nursemaid), and Genet (Rosina's young daughter who steals Marion's heart). The novel moves forward building on the lives of the characters and pulling the reader into their stories.

Verghese's novel is centered on the twins who are physically identical, but are very different people. Their connection as brothers is tested throughout the book, and although the reader sees their relationship through only the eyes of Marion, it is a compelling look at siblings.

May 17th- Devil in the White City by Erik Larson

Their fates were linked by the magical Chicago World's Fair of 1893, nicknamed the "White City" for its majestic beauty. Architect Daniel Burnham built it; serial killer Dr. H. H. Holmes used it to lure victims to his World's Fair Hotel, designed for murder. Both men left behind them a powerful legacy, one of brilliance and energy, the other of sorrow and darkness.
