Taxpayers can add both personal property and real estate taxes at the same time, as well as any late taxes from previous years. If more than one bill is due, the oldest must be paid before any others.

Clicking ‘process payment’ will ask the taxpayer for their personal information and payment method. There are no fees for using e-Check, for example a bank account number, but a 2% fee for credit cards and a 1.5% fee for debit cards.

All personal property and real estate taxes must be paid before midnight on Dec. 31, 2022. Late payments will incur a 9% penalty and 2% interest charge.

If a taxpayer cannot find an online personal property or real estate tax statement for 2022, or has a question about the tax amount, they will need to contact the Greene County Assessor’s Office, at 417-868-4101 or assessoronline@greencountymo.gov, to have their property assessed to determine its value.

Greene County Collector Allen Icet anticipates mailed tax statements will be sent to homes by mid-November.

If a taxpayer has not received a mailed statement by Thanksgiving, please send an email to collectorhelp@greencountymo.gov.

Taxpayers can also pay their taxes by mail or in person at the Greene County Collector's Office located in room 107 of the Historic Courthouse at 940 N Boonville Ave in Springfield.

If by mail, the envelope must be postmarked by Dec. 31, 2022 or else the payment will be considered late.

However, the easiest and most efficient way to pay your taxes is online at www.CountyCollector.com. There are no lines, no need for stamps and envelopes, and taxpayers will get an instant payment receipt.

Property tax revenue pays for entities like schools, roads, bridges, libraries, firefighters, and more. Your annual tax statement will have a breakdown of where the money goes and each taxing district's tax levy.

At the bottom of a tax statement, taxpayers can find answers to frequently asked questions about personal property or real estate taxes.
