

Angell, Betty R.

Betty R. Angell, 87, resident of Bad Axe, died with her family at her side on Thursday, April 8, 2010.

She was born July 30, 1922 in East St. Louis, Ill. to the late Walter and Marie Dickens. She married Charles Angell on Dec. 1, 1945. He preceded her in death on May 16, 1968. Betty attended the First United Methodist Church. She graduated from East St. Louis High School and worked many years as a salesclerk for J. L. Hudson Department Store. She enjoyed people, playing cards, bowling, watching movies and spending time with her family and friends. She was particularly fond of her church family at the Bad Axe First United Methodist Church.

She is survived by her four children, Cheryl (Jim) Hopper of Westland, Debra (Tom) Laity of Bad Axe, Michael Angell of Canton, Ohio and David Angell of New Baltimore; seven grandchildren, Sean (Melinda) Cueny, Seth (Karen) Cueny, Jason (Helen) Cueny, Christopher Laity, Laura Laity, Aaron Angell and Brandon Angell and three great-grandchildren, Celeste Cueny, Skye Cueny and Ian Cueny.

The family will be having a memorial service celebrating Betty's life at 11 a.m. on Saturday, April 24, 2010 at the Bad Axe First United Methodist Church. The Rev. M. Jean Love will officiate. Cremation has taken place and her ashes will be buried next to her husband, Charles, in Fairview Heights, Ill.

In lieu of flowers, memorials can be made to the Bad Axe First United Methodist Church. Arrangements are being handled by the MacAlpine Funeral Home, Bad Axe.
