A Member may serve on any Sub Committee of the West Virginia Recycles Steering Committee in West Virginia. A member may participate in the business meetings of the Coalition. Members of the Coalition are not allowed to execute agreements, deeds, instruments, contracts, documents, certificates and other writings or perform such acts on behalf of the Coalition without resolution, authorized, empowered or directed to execute or perform on behalf of the Coalition, or a committee of three appointed by the Coalition.

Article VI

Miscellaneous

Section 1. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Coalition shall commence on the first (1st) day of January and shall end on the next thirty-first (31st) day of December.

Section 2. Executive Committee. The Coalition may, by duly adopted resolution, whether general or special, create an Executive Committee of the Coalition, the duties and membership of which shall be determined as set forth in these Bylaws or as prescribed by such or subsequent resolutions, or designated by the Chair of the Coalition, or in his/her absence, the Vice Chair, to fulfill the duties of an Executive Committee.

Section 3. Payment of Money. All bills, notes, checks, drafts, acceptances of other instruments, and orders for the payment or withdrawal of any and all monies, credits, items and property at any time by any depository for the Coalition's bankable papers and funds shall be signed by the Chair and deposited into the Coalition's bank account.

The Coalition's Board of Directors so named as aforesaid are hereby empowered to act jointly in the same manner on behalf of the Coalition in all matters and transactions relating to the foregoing business with said depository.

The Chair may expend for minor purchases of one-hundred dollars ($100.00) or less. All expenses by any other member must be approved by the Coalition.

The Chair is hereby empowered to act on behalf of the Coalition in all matters and transactions relating to any monies granted or appropriated to the Coalition.

Section 4. Contracts. All contracts and obligations of the Coalition shall be signed by the Chair or the Vice Chair unless, by resolution of the Coalition, other officers of the Coalition are authorized to execute contracts or other obligations of the Coalition.

Section 5. Indemnification. The Coalition shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, indemnify any Coalition members, officer or employee made, or threatened to be made, a party to any legal action or proceeding, other than a criminal action, arising from such Coalition member, officer or employee's actions or conduct taken within their official capacity as a Coalition member or officer against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and necessarily incurred as a result of such action or proceeding (including any appeal therein), if: (a) such Coalition member or officer acted in good faith for a purpose, which he/she reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Coalition; and (b) it is not determined in such legal action or proceeding that such Coalition member or officer acted with willful or gross negligence.

Section 6. Generally. The Coalition may engage such consultants as it deems advisable, setting compensation, duties and for length of engagement as the Coalition may from time to time prescribe.

Article VII

Vacancy

The Coalition may fill a vacancy in any Coalition office at any regular meeting of the Coalition.

Article VIII

Dissolution

At the time of dissolution of the corporation, the Coalition shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all debts, obligations, liabilities, cost and expenses of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation by charitable contribution. In no case shall a disposition be made which would not qualify as a charitable contribution under Section 170 (c) (1) or (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended, in such a manner as the Coalition shall determine.

Article IX

Amendments

The Coalition shall have power to make, alter, amend, suspend and repeal these Bylaws by a vote of not less than four (4) members at a special meeting of the Coalition called therefor, or at any annual or regular meeting of the Coalition.
