His Eye Is On The Sparrow

In 1904, a songwriter, Mrs. Civilla Martin, went to visit a bedridden friend in Elmira, New York. Mrs. Martin asked the woman if she ever got discouraged because of her physical condition. Her friend quickly responded: "Mrs. Martin, how can I be discouraged when my heavenly Father watches over each little sparrow and I know He loves and cares for me?"

On her journey back home, Mrs. Martin completed the writing of her new text, which has since been a source of much encouragement to many of God's people:

Why should I feel discouraged,
 why should the shadows come,
 why should my heart be lonely
 and long for Heaven and home,
 when Jesus is my portion?
 My constant Friend is He:
 His eye is on the sparrow,
 and I know He watches me...

"Let not your heart be troubled,"
 His tender word I hear,
 and resting on His goodness,
 I lose my doubts and fears;
 though by the path He leadeth,
 but one step I may see:
 His eye is on the sparrow,
 and I know He watches me...

Whenever I am tempted,
 whenever clouds arise,
 when song gives place to sighing,
 when hope within me dies,
 I draw the closer to Him;
 from care He sets me free;
 His eye is on the sparrow,
 and I know He watches me...

God's care for us is immeasurable -- He allowed His only begotten Son to die in our stead (John 3:16).

God's care for us will sustain us throughout life, for "we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose" (Romans 8:28).

Dear Lord, forgive my unthinking questions about Your care for me in times of distress. Keep me aware of Your greatness, and help me to sense Your strength when I despair. In Jesus' name. Amen.

"When I consider Your heavens, the work of Your fingers, the moon and the stars, which You have ordained, what is man that You are mindful of him, and the son of man that You visit him? For You have made him a little lower than the angels, and You have crowned him with glory and honor. You have made him to have dominion over the works of Your hands; You have put all things under his feet, all sheep and oxen -- even the beasts of the field, the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea that pass through the paths of the seas. O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is Your name in all the earth!" - Psalm 8:3-9).
