Cowman's Prayer

Now, O Lord, please lend me thine
ear,

The prayer of a cattleman to hear,
No doubt the prayers may seem strange,

But I want you to bless our cattle range.

Bless the round-ups year by year,
And don't forget the growing steer;
Water the lands with brooks and rills

For my cattle that roam on a thousand hills.

Prairie fires, won't you please stop?
Let thunder roll and water drop.
It frightens me to see the smoke;
Unless it's stopped, I'll go dead broke.

As you, O Lord, my herd behold,
It represents a sack of gold;
I think at least five cents a pound
Will be the price of beef the year around.

One thing more and then I'm through,— Instead of one calf, give my cows two.

I may pray different from other men
But I've had my say, and now,
Amen.

GOOD LUCK TO ALL THE
