Substitutions, with or without an additional fee, may be accepted at the discretion of the show sponsor. No substitutions, changes, or additions will be allowed in a breed after judging of the breed has commenced.

SECTION 30. All animals must be the bonafide property of the exhibitor(s) prior to entry. Each owner's personal name(s) must be listed on the entry form, but a rabbitry name may be added, if applicable, when entering shows. It will be the responsibility of the owner(s) and Show Committee to not submit or accept an entry in family or rabbitry names. The determination / confirmation of ownership is the responsibility of the exhibitor. All animals "Putting names" or leaving off owner names on entry are not permissible. By entering an animal in a show, you are declaring you are the owner of said animal[s]

- In case of disqualification under this rule, other exhibitors shall, if qualified, be moved up on the list of winners.

How to Fill Out an Entry Form

New exhibitors and many long time breeders fill out the show entry form in a jumbled manner and wonder why the show secretary makes so many mistakes. A long time show secretary tells us how to make her life and job easier and produce fewer mistakes.

When you are entering rabbits on the entry form, start with one breed and variety, do all the bucks then all the does. Start with senior bucks, on to 6/8's and then the juniors. Do the same with the does of this breed and variety. Then and only then go on to the next variety. After entering all of one breed then move onto the next breed. When you change breeds or varieties, skip a line.

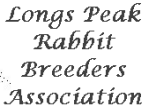

With all most everyone using a show program entry of the shows goes much faster if you list your animals in the above manner.

There is nothing more frustrating than working with an entry and be inputting information when suddenly another breed or variety appears without any ceremony and then the owner skips right back to the breed or variety before.

Typed entries are great, or they can just be put on a spread sheet, example below. If you are hand writing your entry please print legibly, especially your tattoo. This saves on leg problems down the road. In the columns clearly circle the correct item, don't make a big sweeping circle that covers both areas.
