Sunday Meditation

For reasons only God understands, He wants us to rely completely on Him. Over and over He charges us to "wait only" on Him. "My soul, wait silently for God alone. For my expectation is from Him" (Ps. 62:5). The best lesson we believers can learn is to expect nothing from the world or from our own ability, but to look to God for everything. "Apart from me you can do nothing," Jesus said. What an immense privilege it is for us to have such a benign and inexhaustible source for our needs! We can expect all from Him in this life and the next. Whether we live or die, our expectation is from Him. Sadly our proud flesh always looks first to natural sources, to our great loss. God graciously allows us to apply vainly to human sources, though He's more than willing to meet all our needs Himself. All for Jesus, Richard
