KH News

‏ Learning Synagogue Skills Survey: The KH prides itself on being an active and participatory community in which many of our members regularly lead services, give divrei Torah, chant Torah or haftarah, or receive synagogue honors. We know that many people in our community have not yet had a chance to learn these skills, or would like to review or improve their knowledge. We would love to hear from you: What would you like to learn or practice? Click here to access and fill out the synagogue skills survey and we will make it happen!

‏ Thanks to Alice Twombly for leading this week's book discussion and to Rebecca Ivry for organizing and hosting.

‏ Special thanks to Renah and Mayer Rabinowitz for cleaning up and organizing the KH kitchen todah rabah!!!

‏ Thanks to Miriam and Bruce Pomeranz for hosting last week's Kabbalat Shabbat & Potluck Dinner. And thanks to everyone who participated and brought food and supplies. Todah rabah!

‏ Bergen County High School of Judaic Studies registration is now open for the Fall semester. KH members are entitled to a discount in tuition. For more information or to register, go to the BCHSJS website.

Tikkun Olam Opportunities/Community Announcements

☺ Community Walks in Englewood: Join Reverend Bill Allport from St Pauls in an effort to weave reconciliation and community within the various parts of Englewood. Members of our congregation are invited to join Father Bill, members of St Paul's and other faith communities to walk our neighborhood in Englewood for three Sunday evenings July 21, 28 and Aug 4 at 6pm.

Walking our local neighborhood allows us to build relationship and gives a testimony of our shared community. Walking our local neighborhood allows us to see the presence of God and possibilities of God already unfolding, waiting for us to join God's movement in the world.

The evening schedule is as follows:

6pm – Meet at St Paul's, 113 Engle St., connect, introductions, and logistics.

6:15pm – In smaller groups, pick a route and walk through a portion of Englewood.

7:15pm – Return to St. Paul's for reflection, simple refreshments, learnings, and prayers for one another and Englewood.

8pm – The evening will conclude.

If you can join us this Sunday, or commit for future Sunday evenings, please let Rev. Allport know as soon as possible by email revballport@stpaulsenglewood.org or by phone 201.515.7769
