Sunday's Theme

Today's Gospel reading provides us with an opportunity to reflect upon our own disposition during prayer. Are we, like nine of the lepers in today's Gospel, inclined to ask God for special favours, yet fail to express gratitude when such favours are obtained or are we like the Samaritan leper who when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice and prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him? Let us always remember to express gratitude to God for the abundance of blessings bestowed upon us from day to day.

Monday is Thanksgiving Day. It is fitting for us to offer thanks to God for all the gifts we have received. The bountiful produce of the earth is a visible sign of the many blessings God wants to shower on us through Christ (Ephesians 1.3-10). God also desires that we share the goods of the earth with all people. Thanksgiving Day is observed as a Special Day of Prayer in the Dioceses of Canada.

The Parish Office will be closed on Monday for Thanksgiving Day.

Thank you! Thank you to DeeAnna Harbin for her years of commitment to our Catechesis program. We appreciate all that she did to help our children grow in their faith and develop a deeper understanding of the Church's teachings and the Lord's blessings. We wish her a happy and healthy future in her new community.

October 11 - Memorial of Saint John XXIII, Pope: Born in 1881, Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli was ordained a Priest in 1904, appointed Bishop in 1925, created a Cardinal in 1953, and elected Pope in 1958, taking the name John XXIII. During his pontificate of less than five years, the world came to see him as an authentic image of the Good Shepherd. Meek and gentle, enterprising and courageous, simple and active, he carried out the corporal and spiritual works of mercy, bestowing on all his fatherly care. He contributed to the Social Magisterium of the Church with his two Encyclicals, Pacem in Terris and Mater et Magistra, convoked the Roman Synod, established the Commission for the Revision of the Code of Canon Law, and summoned the Second Vatican Council. Known to the faithful as "the good Pope", Pope John XXIII died on June 3, 1963, and was canonized on April 27, 2014.

October 14 - Memorial of Saint Callistus I, Pope, Martyr: From his early years, Callistus was the slave of a Christian. Honest and intelligent, Callistus was put in charge of a bank which eventually failed. For this and other incidents he was arrested and sentenced to forced labour in Sardinian mines. He later became a free man, and about 199 Pope Zephyrinus appointed Callistus his deacon and counsellor and put him in charge of the first official Christian cemetery in Rome. In 217, Callistus was elected Pope by a majority vote of the Roman clergy and laity. He met a violent death about 222, probably during an uprising against Christians, and was buried on the Via Aurelia.

OCTOBER 15 - Memorial of Saint Teresa of Jesus, Virgin, Doctor: Teresa (1515-1582) was born in Avila, Spain. She is one of the many women who exercised leadership roles in the Church. She founded the reformed (Discalced) Carmelite Orders of nuns and friars. She wrote several works which are considered classics of spiritual literature, including The Way of Perfection and The Interior Castle. A great mystic, and a strong, intelligent and active leader, Teresa was canonized in 1622 and became the first woman to be declared a Doctor of the Church in 1970. She is patroness of Spain.

This Thanksgiving, parishioners are asked to remember those less fortunate by contributing items (such as juice, tin goods, cereal, flour, sugar, etc.) to the food bank. Items can be placed in the box at the rear of the church.

"It is important to know the passwords of our heart, what we are most sensitive to, to protect ourselves from those who present themselves with persuasive words to manipulate us, but also to recognize what is truly important for us."

Pope Francis @ Pontifex

SYMPATHY AND PRAYERS ARE EXTENDED TO THE FAMILY AND FRIENDS OF:

Ella Mae PAYNTER of Golden Years Estates who died at the James Paton Memorial Hospital on Saturday, October 1, 2022 at the age of 94. She is the mother of Myrtle (Dan) Mahoney and aunt of Jean (Mike) Devereaux of our parish.

May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
