Alethia Guidelines

1. Make rehearsals a priority. All rehearsals are mandatory, except for sickness, or serious family emergency.
2. Be on time! To be early is to be on time. To be on time is to be late. To be late is to be history. Please be respectful to everyone else and be on time!
3. Come prepared to work. Do your homework, arrive having reviewed/memorized your lines.
4. Have a rehearsal bag with a notebook, pencils, script, water, dinner, snack (or money), etc. that will come to every rehearsal.
5. Memorize your lines by the due dates given by your Director.
6. Respect the rehearsal/performance space at all times.
7. You may, and should, have water at all times during rehearsal. Please refrain from eating food during rehearsal. You may eat during breaks.
8. No gum ever.
9. Use restrooms during breaks so you do not have to leave during rehearsal time.
10. Record all blocking in your script, in pencil. Never write in your script with pen.
11. G-rated language only.
12. Dress modestly.
13. Never leave campus during scheduled rehearsal time.
14. Respect other performers, the directors, assistants and the board.
15. All Alethia related questions and concerns are to be brought to the board, not the Director.
16. Leave all electronics at home. No cell phone use during rehearsal.
17. Always clean up your space before leaving. Leave everything as you found it, or better.
18. Understand that the actor will provide their own make-up, as well as necessary elements of his/her costume, which may include specialty make-up items, shoes, etc.

If actor fails to meet these expectations, the actor understands that a meeting will be held between the actor, parents/guardian and the board/director to determine if the actor should be dismissed from the show.

The actor and parents understand that Alethia actors represent Alethia Christian Theater at all times, and will behave accordingly.

Parents agree to encourage adherence to these guidelines and will understand if appropriate action is necessary by the Alethia Christian Theater board.

Our goal, as the board of Alethia Christian Theater, is that this will be an encouraging experience for the actor and their family.
