To Whom It May Concern:

Ref: Tavaro Hanna

We have had the privilege of knowing Tavaro Hanna for almost all of his life. We met him when as a young child he was brought by his mother to the assemblies of the local church in Freeport, Grand Bahama Island. He was always a part of the church activities relative to his age as he grew into adulthood. It was no surprise that when he reached an appropriate age he then made a decision to be a follower of Jesus Christ. Ever since coming to that decision he has demonstrated and expressed a desire to be of greater service to the Lord. So much so that about a year and a half ago he made the decision to enroll in the Memphis School of Preaching to be further equipped for the work of evangelism.

During his time with the local church in Freeport he was intricately involved with the work. His involvement included sharing in preaching duties, teaching Bible classes, and leading the Brothers Keepers Ministry in the congregation. He has demonstrated good organizational and planning skills as he has planned and executed a number of very successful outreach activities with the Freeport congregation.

We certainly wish him well in his future endeavors especially as they relate to his growth in and service to Lord and know that whatever assistance you can render will be of help in this regards.

Yours truly,

James Miller
