PRISON MINISTRY

Letters from Students

“Oh, give thanks to the Lord, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever. Let the redeemed of the Lord say so, whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy.”

Psalms 107:1. 2

I need to keep my eyes and my heart on God and continue to seek Him in my everyday heart and life.

It's wonderful knowing that God never forgets His people, and He gives all the time needed to come to repentance.

No doubt, we must choose the only Master, which is God, Who gave his love for us by what His son did at the cross.

God does hear and answer our prayers if we are humble when we are helpless and dependent on Him.

My Lord has my whole heart. He is my strength and calm in hard and troubled times.

I have my heart fixed on God, and I pray all day long in a silent prayer to my Lord, my God. The Holy Spirit that lives in me will teach and guide me to Jesus and heaven one day soon. Through the 28 months of my incarceration, I have never encountered a ministry or people or brothers and sisters in Christ that care about the ones in prison. You and Pastor Jim, who have sent me the twenty-eight beliefs, have gone to the extent of helping others beyond the means of what other ministries have ever done or tried. Thank you for all the help you have given me. We could use more teachers and more funds. Thank you!

We can use some more people to grade the lessons. You can get your material here at our church and grade them at home. If you are interested, call Tilitha Taylor at 817-645-5327. Thank you!
