

Scorpion Staff

Coach Sillers has been coaching High School baseball in Maryland for 13 years. He played high school baseball at Long Reach and St. Vincent Pallotti High Schools where he was All County and honorable mention ALL MET. He pitched for four years at Frostburg State University where he led his team with the lowest ERA in 2003 and 2005 and AMCC conference championship in 2004 and 2006. He is also a high school history teacher and enjoys teaching the game of baseball to up and coming high school players.

Coach Sillers is assisted by some of the best high school players in the county who will be playing baseball at the collegiate level next season.

OM Camp Philosophy

The OM Baseball Camp is designed to prepare youth players for baseball at the high school level. Coach Sillers has a philosophy that baseball needs to be a worthwhile and enjoyable experience for the youth player. Part of that enjoyment comes from being able to perform up to the individual player's potential. The successful player is proficient in five major areas of the game - baserunning, hitting for average, hitting for power, throwing accuracy, and arm strength.
