Talking about the WEATHER... (yes I/we know some of you live in worse hit areas but I am just relating to local scene with these updates)

For those of you who are local I do not have to tell that the temps of late have been in THE DEEP FREEZE!

Although much of the snow amts. Have missed us the frigid temps have not. This a.m. (1-9-10) the various reporting sources checked reported current temps at 7a.m. to be from a -3* to -9*. I know that the various places that they record from vary from the AirPort, 'Dillon Nature Center', Hospital to several of local schools make some of the difference but, OMG It's Cold! Unfortunately there have been water pipes, pumps failing, Batteries fail, city hydrant problems causing fighting fires more dangerous & difficult & of course there has been a big increase in them with the increased need to over load on wirings, furnaces & fireplaces.
