

Sunday Meditation

God loves for us to seek Him for His gifts. He isn't put off by our neediness; He'll never reproach us for coming to Him too often. "Let [a man] ask God, who gives to all men generously and without reproaching, and it will be given him" (James 1:5). Never think your requests are too many or too small for Him; He's ever gracious. He delights to be the source of all our needs. "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God" (Phil. 4:6). We may exhaust the patience of our human parents by too much asking. But never our heavenly father: "...how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him" (Matt. 7:11). But we must ask in faith, never doubting the Father's willingness to give (James 1:7). All for Jesus, Richard
