EASTER SUNDAY

When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:6-8

St. Pius X Holy Land Pilgrimage Sept. 20-29, 2024

After years of hearing the Gospels proclaimed at Mass, after years of proclaiming the Creed and partaking the Body and Blood of Christ at Mass, imagine hearing those Gospels proclaimed, celebrating mass, and receiving the Body and Blood of Christ in the very places where Jesus was born, was baptized, and where he ministered, taught, healed, suffered, died and rose from the dead. On this Catholic Pilgrimage to the Holy Land, you will visit all of these sacred places and more. We will celebrate mass in Bethlehem, on the Mount of Beatitudes, Jerusalem's Garden of Gethsemane, and the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, and in the small village where Mary visited Elizabeth and John the Baptist was born.

Our 10-day pilgrimage includes first-class hotels, international flights, overseas airport transfers, breakfast and dinner daily, deluxe motor-coaches, professional guides, all entry fees, and most gratuities.

Join us in the Parish Hall at 5:00pm on Wed, April 26 for an informational meeting to learn more about this opportunity. If you are unable to make it to this meeting and would like to learn more, please contact Shelly Maffia at 812-719-0452 or shellymaffia@yahoo.com.

Attention all ministers!

April is National Child Abuse Awareness Month

Did you know...Child abuse can occur in every culture and every socio-economic demographic. Peer reviewed research, especially that of the past 30 years, repeatedly shows this to be true. This same research indicated that the vast majority of child abuse occurs at the hands of someone known to the victim. Those who seek to do harm to children will pursue opportunities that provide access to children and may even ingratiate themselves into the home.

You can protect children by respecting the safe environment protocols established at youth serving organizations. More importantly, you can implement many of these protocols in your home and be ever observant and vigilant in all public and private settings.

Ven. Maria Casimira Kaupas

Venerable Mother Maria Kaupas, born Casmiria Kaupas, was born in Ramygala, Lithuania, in 1880. At that time of Russia rule in Lithuania, Catholics were unable to openly practice their faith as the state religion was Russian Orthodox. Despite this, Casmiria, her parents, and her nine brothers and sisters did their best to keep their Catholic faith alive. In the early 1890's, Casmiria's brother, Anthony, emigrated to the United States, became a priest, and was assigned to St. Joseph's Lithuanian Church in Scranton, Pennsylvania. In 1897 he invited Casmiria to come to the USA as his housekeeper and she agreed. While in Pennsylvania she witnessed the lives of women religious for the first time and was intrigued. Despite moving back to Lithuania four years later, this intrigue continued to stir in her the desire for apostolic religious life.

Eventually, under the direction and care of the Sisters of Mercy in Switzerland, she spent three years being educated on religious life, preparing for the work to which she felt called. At the time, the American Lithuanian clergy saw a need to establish a Lithuanian congregation for women in the United States to address the faith and educational needs of those immigrating to the U.S. from Lithuania and the surrounding regions. Casmiria returned to the United States to start this congregation with two other Lithuanian companions who entered into religious life as novitiates, first with the Servants of the Sacred Heart (IHM), before the founding of the new congregation. The congregation she would go on to lead, The Sisters of St. Casmir, was approved by Pope Pius X in 1907 and, on August 30th of the same year, Casmiria and the other two sisters were professed. Originally, Casmiria wanted her Congregation to be named after the Blessed Mother, but Bishop Shanahan, the Congregation's sponsoring bishop, thought it more appropriate that the name should honor St. Casimir, the patron saint of Lithuania, instead. Conceding to this idea since the sisters would be primarily serving Lithuanian immigrants, Casmiria and her companions received Marian names upon their professions instead. Casmiria became Mother Maria, and her companions became Sister Concepta and Sister Immaculata.

Shortly after the establishment of The Sisters of St. Casmir, they opened their first parish convent school, Holy Cross School, in Mt. Carmel, Pennsylvania. This school provided education for children of Lithuanian immigrants and started with over 70 students enrolled. It wasn't long before other communities were asking the Sisters for educational help. The Sisters of St. Casmir quickly expanded from Pennsylvania to Illinois and, eventually, many other parts of the USA. The Sisters put down their official roots and a Motherhouse in Chicago in 1911 and expanded into healthcare, building and running hospitals after the influenza epidemic of 1918-1919.

In 1920, Mother Maria and her sisters were invited by the Bishops of Lithuania to return and start a congregation of the Sisters of St. Casmir there. Russian control of religion in the region was lax due to Russia's preoccupation with its own revolution so the Sisters took advantage of this and went to expand their Congregation and get down to business helping to educate others in their home country. They rapidly increased in number and opened schools and other institutions all over Lithuania.

Mother Maria Kaupas died of cancer at her Motherhouse in Chicago, surrounded by her sisters, on April 17, 1940, after leading the Congregation for almost her entire adult life. On July 1, 2010, the Congregation for the Causes of the Saints named Mother Maria Venerable. Many of the institutions started by Mother Maria remain today as pillars of faith and family for both immigrant and natural born citizens alike in the USA and abroad.
