Julianne Neal is the owner of JA Media Connections, LLC, the Coordinator of Visual and Performing Arts for The Fairfield County School District and Theatre Director at Fairfield Central High School. She is also the President of Nature's View, Inc, a company owned and operated in collaboration with Bruce Anderson. The two also work in partnership to provide services through The Marley Project, Inc, a 501 (c)(3) with an education focused mission. The organization connects horses with individuals, educational groups, law enforcement officers and veterans.

Neal owns and operates Thornfield LLC, a boarding and training facility located in South Carolina and combines her love of all things equine, her educational experience and her arts focus to bring former students, clients and projects together through JA Media Connections LLC.

She began working with film production through a partnership with James O'Connor and The Art of Storytelling (AOS), an international agency specializing in well-crafted, engaging stories designed to hold the attention of audiences and transform relationships. Their first collaborative project, "THE EDGE: Bruce Anderson - Natural Humanship," provides insight into Anderson's equine work.
