

STARTING SEPTEMBER 13
9:30 am in the Parsonage Yard
(Off the Arch St. Parking lot)

In the event of inclement weather or inclement forecast, please check the church Facebook page or call the church machine before coming. A decision will be made by 9 am whether we hold services.

Masks are Required. Only those with disabilities or medical reasons may attend without masks and we ask that social distance be respected. If you are not in this category and choose not to wear a mask, please join us at home via the livestream.

The yard will be marked for social distancing of family groups or individuals. Please bring your own chair, hat, sunscreen, bug spray.

Attendance will be taken for Contact Tracing as you arrive.

Offering will be received on the attendance table. VANCO is still accepted.

Communion will be shared via prepackaged sets that will be distributed upon entry.

Bathrooms: available for Emergencies only.

Due to COVID-19 and mitigation recommendations, there will be no singing, unison readings, or responses.

There will not be a paper bulletin. You may download a bulletin and bring it if desired.

If you have prayer request that you would like shared, please contact Pastor Jeff with your prayer request via email or text by 9 pm on Saturday evening. Prayer requests will not be verbally received during worship.

If you have an announcement to share, please contact Bev Frantz by Saturday evening at 8 pm to offer your announcement. One person will offer the announcements on Sunday morning. There will not be an open microphone.

The service will be streamed on Facebook LIVE! for those choosing to remain at home.
