AMY STRONG WITH DAUGHTER SYDNEY,
PIANO ACCOMPANIST REED GALBRAITH
AND FLAUTIST MELISSA STRONG
7 & 8PM VISITORS' CENTER

Amy is thrilled to return to perform during Temple Hill's Days of Christmas this year. She is a graduate of Brigham Young University where she performed and recorded with the BYU Choirs. She also toured, performed, and recorded with the premier EVMCO choir in Arizona before relocating to Northern California with her family in 2013. As a special treat, Amy will be joined by her 11-year-old daughter, Sydney, singing Christmas favorites along with a celebration of our Savior's birth and ministry.

Also welcome Reed Galbraith on piano and Amy's sister, Melissa Strong, enhancing the program on flute. Enjoy a traditional selection of songs, including a spectacular O, Holy Night.
