

Schock, Debra A.

Debra A. Schock, 52, of Sebewaing, died Wednesday evening, Jan. 27, 2010 at her home following an eight-month illness.

She was born Nov. 18, 1957 in Port Huron, daughter of the late Alfred F. and Madeline J. (Tuzzo) Bommarito.

She was a 1975 graduate of the Croswell–Lexington High School. She attended St. Clair County Community College, receiving an associate's degree. She later attended Port Huron School of Cosmetology.

She was united in marriage to Jeffery P. Schock on Aug. 7, 1981 in Lexington.

Deb had been employed at the Unionville-Sebewaing Area Elementary School as a parapro EBLI-trained reading instructor.

She was a member of Holy Family Catholic Church in Sebewaing.

Deb's greatest joy came from spending time with her husband and children. She enjoyed camping, scrapbooking, and daily walks with the family dog, Saydee.

Surviving are her husband, Jeffery, of Sebewaing; one son, Andrew P. Schock, one daughter, Taylor N. Schock, both at home; one brother, Frank (Cynthia) Bommarito of Germany; many cousins, nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by one sister, Rosemary Bommarito.

The Mass of Christian Burial will take place at 11 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 30, 2010 at Holy Family Catholic Church in Sebewaing. Fr. John Weis will officiate with burial in St. John's Cemetery in Forestville.

Visitation will be from 1 to 8 p.m. Friday and from 9 a.m. until the Mass at 11 a.m. Saturday at the Holy Family Catholic Church, 8370 S. Unionville Road, Sebewaing.

Those planning an expression of sympathy are asked to consider Holy Family Catholic Church or the USA Elementary Reading Program.

Arrangements are being handled by the Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home in Sebewaing.
